

Speaker's CV

Jeffrey Bland, PhD, FACN, CNS

Dr. Jeffrey Bland is an internationally recognized leader in the nutritional medicine field.

- Chairman of the Board, The Institute for Functional Medicine
- President and Chief Science Officer, Metagenics, Inc.

Fellow:

- American College of Nutrition
- National Academy of Clinical Biochemists

Board of Directors:

- The Institute for Functional Medicine
- Aspen Center for Integrative Medicine
- Genova Diagnostics

Senior Investigator:

- American Association of Clinical Scientists

Past Activities:

- Chief Executive Officer of HealthComm International, Inc.
- Former Director of the Nutritional Supplement Analysis Laboratory at the Linus Pauling Institute of Science & Medicine
- Professor of Chemistry (with a specialty in Nutritional Biochemistry) at the University of Puget Sound

Honors:

- Honorary Degree, Doctor of Letters, The National College of Chiropractic, 1998
- The Leonardo da Vinci Award, The Institute for the Achievement of Human Potential, 1996
- The Linus Pauling Heroes Award, 1993
- The Spectrum Award, The World Organization for Human Potential, 1992
- Norman Clark Senior Lecturer, American Academy for Advancement in Medicine, 1991

- Theron Randolph Lecturer, American Academy of Environmental Medicine
- Hermes International Vitamin Prize, Munich, Germany, 1986
- Honorary Doctor of Naturopathic Medicine, The National College of Naturopathic Medicine, 1978
- American Men & Women in Science
- Phi Kappa Phi, National Academic Honorary

Dr. Bland has been awarded several patents for formulations and is the author of books, scientific articles, and book chapters.